

Hi Christine,

This is Lisa Batra, the founder of My Kids Threads (www.MyKidsThreads.com), an online consignment shop that sells new and gently used clothing for children from newborn to 13 years old. I'm also the working mom of two young children of my own and understand how painful it is to spend loads of money on clothing kids can only wear for a short amount of time, which is why I love sharing consignment tips with moms around the country. I would love to provide your Working Mother readers with some tips on making extra cash for holiday shopping and celebrations this year by consigning their new or gently used kids clothing that is currently sitting around the house or stored in boxes.

Consignment shopping is a trend that is on the rise, and moms and women across the country could be using it to make money in a hassle-free manner, but they have to know how to do it the right way, and I can teach them how. As the founder of an online children's consignment shop I know first-hand what works, what doesn't, and how to make the process as seamless and successful as possible.

I've included some tips below and am happy to share more, or provide any other consignment-based tips your readers may need!

How to Consign Successfully:

- Tip 1
- Tip 2
- Tip 3
- Tip 4

I would love to share more tips and the My Kids Threads online consignment resource with your readers.

Contact me anytime should I be able to provide more information!

Thanks and all my best,

Lisa
